

THYLORA Question Deck

50 Better Questions — a practical card deck for seeing what is true, what is missing, and what to do next.

01 · REALITY01/50

What do we know because we witnessed it—not because somebody reported it?

- class band and tick code
- the question, and only the question
- rule line: below it you write
- ruled writing surface — one observation, one evidence-producing next move
- card number, for the session record

THE INSTRUCTION IS PRINTED ONCE, HERE — NOT FIFTY TIMES

READ THIS ONCE

How to use it

Choose one real situation and one card. Answer from evidence. Complete the action before drawing another card. In a group, let every person answer before the loudest voice frames the room.

ON EVERY CARD, DO THIS

Look for: sources, behavior, dates, consequences, missing voices, or customer-visible proof. Do: write one observation and one evidence-producing next move.

That instruction governs all fifty cards. It is printed here once instead of fifty times, so each card can carry its question, its class and your writing space and nothing else.

THE FIVE CLASSES

What each class is for

Count the ticks to read the class without colour.

I	REALITY Separates what was witnessed from what was reported.	cards 01-10
II	FRICTION Finds where the work actually costs somebody something.	cards 11-20
III	VALUE Tests what a customer is really paying for.	cards 21-30
IIII	PEOPLE Keeps the person in the room when decisions are made.	cards 31-40
IIIII	ACTION Converts the session into evidence and an owner.	cards 41-50

ORDER OF PLAY

REALITY before VALUE. PEOPLE before ACTION. A deck drawn in that order tends to produce evidence; drawn in reverse it tends to produce opinions.
