

Help Me Post This

Say the true thing clearly, so the right person can answer.

A kitchen table at the moment of rewriting: one hand holds the first draft, the other points at the missing line.

You have something to say — a need, a thing you made, a question for your city — and the post is not getting answered. Most posts stall at the same few gaps: nobody can tell where you are, what you are asking for, or what they should do next. This worksheet walks you through those gaps one at a time. It is free. We never post for you, and nothing you write here comes to us unless you choose to send it.

How it works

Step	You	Us
1	Fill in the six questions on the next page.	Nothing yet.
2	Rewrite your post with the pattern on page 3.	Nothing yet.
3	If you want a second look, email the before and after to ersatzrealityenterprise@gmail.com.	A person reads it and replies with specific changes. No reply time is promised.
4	You decide what to post, where, and when.	We never post, share or sell your words.

What we will not do

We will not write a post that pretends to be you, invent a story, add urgency that is not true, or tell you that a post will raise a certain amount. We cannot promise that anyone will answer.

The six questions every post has to answer

Question	Why it matters	Your answer
WHO is this for?	A post for "everyone" is a post for no one.
WHERE are you?	Help is local. Country, city or region — not your street.
WHAT exactly do you need or offer?	One thing. Name it plainly.
BY WHEN?	A real deadline, if there is one. Do not invent one.
WHAT should the reader do?	Reply, share, buy, point you to someone — pick one.
WHAT is the next question?	What you will ask once someone answers.

From the source (Chairman, sequence 605): "I can help you with your — give you a better way to post that. We can help people like that."

Rewrite pattern

Line 1 — the need in plain words. Line 2 — where. Line 3 — what the reader can do. Line 4 — the next question.

Worked example (invented for teaching — not a real person)

Before	After
Anybody know anything?? Really need help asap, nobody ever answers.	I need a free or low-cost place to wash clothes this week. I am in Dundalk, Maryland, USA. If you know a laundromat or church that helps, please reply with the name. Next I will ask: what hours, and do I need to sign up?

Keep yourself safe in public

Do not put in a public post	Say this instead
Your exact address or where you sleep	Your city or neighbourhood
Phone numbers, account numbers, ID numbers	"Message me" or an email you can abandon
Medical or court details	"I have a medical bill I cannot pay" — no records
Children's names, faces or schools	Nothing about the children at all
Anyone else's story without their permission	Your own part of it only

If your post is selling something

Show the money path before the first sale so nobody is surprised:

$N = P - F - T - D$ For a $10.00 item sold by card: $10.00 – $0.59 card fee – T (sales tax, passed through) – $0.00 delivery = $9.41 – T. Then $N = B + C + A + O + R$, written down before the first sale.

Card fee uses 2.9% + $0.30, the rate recorded on this store's own sale #1004. Your platform's fee may differ; check it.

Send it to us (optional)

Email ersatzrealityenterprise@gmail.com with: your country and city or region, your preferred language, the post before, and your rewrite. Write “email only” if you cannot take calls.

Please do not send medical records, ID numbers, account details, court papers, or your exact sleeping location in the first email. We read messages ourselves; this is not an emergency service and no reply time is guaranteed. If you need help right now, contact an established local emergency or aid service.

The price of this worksheet

$N = P - F - T - D$ For a person who needs it: $P = $0.00$, so $N = $0.00$.
No money moves, so there is nothing to split and nothing is promised.

Help first. The worksheet stays free to anyone. A paid review service does not exist yet and is not offered.
